Opening Prayer:

God who strengthens the faint of heart, calls us into a community of faith—

where we find courage to befriend our enemies and practise reconciliation.

Christ who makes the broken whole, call us into the communities where we live—

to touch with comfort and to speak hope to despair.

Spirit, we gather in your embrace—

to be blessed and a blessing, whole and healing. Amen.<sup>1</sup>

Hymn: Spirit, Spirit of Gentleness

Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,

blow thro' the wilderness calling and free,

Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,

Wind, Wind on the sea.

Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,

blow thro' the wilderness calling and free,

Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,

Wind, Wind on the sea.

You swept thro' the desert, you stung with the sand,

and you goaded your people with a law and a land;

and when they were blinded with their idols and lies,

then you spoke thro' your prophets to open their eyes.

Spirit, Spirit of gentleness,

blow thro' the wilderness calling and free,

Spirit, Spirit of restlessness, stir me from placidness,

Wind, Wind on the sea.

Scriptures:

Matthew 15:10-28 • Being ritually unclean and the story of the Canaanite woman

Then Jesus called the crowd to him and said to them, “Listen and understand: it is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a person, but it is what comes out of the mouth that defiles.” Then the disciples approached and said to him, “Do you know that the Pharisees took offence when they heard what you said?” Jesus answered, “Every plant that my creator has not planted will be uprooted. Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if one blind person guides another, both will fall into a pit.” But Peter said to him, “Explain this parable to us.” Then Jesus said, “Are you also still without understanding? Do you not see that whatever goes into the mouth enters the stomach, and goes out into the sewer? But what comes out of the mouth proceeds from the heart, and this is what defiles. For out of the heart come evil intentions, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false witness, slander. These are what defile a person, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile.” Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, “Have mercy on me, Lord; my daughter is tormented by a demon.” But he did not answer her at all. And the disciples came and urged Jesus, saying, “Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us.” He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” But she came and knelt before him, saying, “Lord, help me.” He answered, “It is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the dogs.” She said, “Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master’s table.” Then Jesus answered her, “Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish.” And her daughter was healed instantly.

May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Thanks be to God.

Hymn: Jesus' Hands Were Kind Hands

Voices United 570

Jesus' hands were kind hands, doing good to all,
healing pain and sickness, blessing children small,
washing tired feet and saving those who fall;
Jesus' hands were kind hands, doing good to all.

Take my hands, O Jesus, let them work for you;
make them strong and gentle, kind in all I do;
let me watch you, Jesus, till I'm gentle too,
till my hands are kind hands, quick to work for you.

Pastoral Prayers

Rev. Karen Bridges

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
thy kin-dom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,

And lead us not into temptation,

For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Next Sunday

Sunday, Aug 27, 2023

Pentecost 13

Gratitude Bucket

Children & Youth: Children and Youth are invited to worship with their families in the sanctuary.

Romans 12:1-12 • New life in Christ.

Matthew 16:13-20 • Peter's declaration about Jesus.

Sermon Title: A Good Question

Simon Peter is one of the first and closest disciples of Jesus. As his travelling companion for something like three years, Simon Peter has had many first-hand experiences of Jesus, but has also observed how others have responded to him. In this passage, we witness again how Jesus uses questions to have those around him deeply process important issues. In this situation, Jesus has his disciples share some of the conclusions about who he is that have come from members of the crowds who have come to hear and see him. Jesus then asks the disciples directly: "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter is a "blurter" and this time what he says is no less than a revelation directly from God: "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." This statement and Jesus' response to it not only cements Peter's place in the inner circle of the disciples at the time, but also in the church that would eventually develop around Jesus and his teachings. When have you had a sudden, deep insight regarding a person, event or situation? How did this insight affect your life?

Volunteer Opportunities

YOUTH LEADERS

We are putting together a team of leaders to work with the youth of the church (Grade 7-12). Youth Leaders with the support of the ministers gather with the youth on Sunday morning during worship for a discussion time about our faith. Curriculum and discussion topics are provided. The youth also meet twice a month on a Saturday night generally from 7:00 -9:30 pm for a time of fun and activities. We like to have a team of 4 leaders. If you are interested please contact Rev. Karen at Karen.bridges@rwuc.org

GARDEN PATCH & KIDS' CHURCH LEADERS & VOLUNTEERS

We are seeking some dedicated volunteers to work with the youngest in our midst. On most Sundays from Sept – June there is programming for the children in the basement of the church. The programming includes stories, games, activities, crafts, baking, discussion etc. The curriculum is provided. It is most helpful to have 2 people with each group. The Garden Patch is for children who are out of diapers (3 years old to Kindergarten). Kids' Church is Grade 1-6, and if there are enough children it is helpful to split that group into Grade 1-3 and Grade 4-6. We like to have a team of people who lead these groups and we set up a schedule to help spread the work. Please contact Rev. Karen Karen.bridges@rwuc.org if you are interested in leading over the next program year Sept 2023 – June 2024.

NOMINATIONS TEAM

The Board of R-W is working on creating a new team of people (3-5) that will form the Nomination Committee. The nomination committee is responsible for seeking people to fill the elected roles on the R-W Board. Each year there are 1-4 roles that need to be filled. The team also updates the job descriptions when necessary. This is a great way to get to know people in the community of faith and the goal is to help people discover where their gifts from God would best be suited. The work of this team happens primarily from November until the Annual Meeting in March. The Board is seeking people who are willing to talk to others and ask questions. It is helpful if you are a good listener that can match skills with roles. If you are interested in learning more about this role please contact Rev. Karen Bridges at karen.bridges@rwuc.org.

LIVESTREAM HELP

We are looking for all ages volunteers (youth to seniors!) to run the livestream on Sundays, from 9:30 - 11:30 am. The livestream process is a simple one that anyone can learn. The position is flexible, and if we get enough volunteers, weeks can be alternated. Having volunteers in this role is crucial to the ongoing success of the livestream. If you are interested please contact Brad at brad.campbell@rwuc.org. Brad will be away from August 14-24 and September 3-8, so expect a response once he returns.

R-W News & Notes

THE LABYRINTH THIS SUMMER

The Labyrinth at Robertson-Wesley will be available on August 24 from 11:00 am to noon in Memorial Hall. Take some time on this midday occasion to engage in reflection and spiritual renewal on the Labyrinth. There will be quotes and questions to guide your walk if you desire.

WORKSHOP: WHAT IS COMMUNION?

Have you ever wanted to learn more about what Communion is and why we do what we do in the way we do it? On Sunday Sept 24 from 12 - 1:30 pm in the sanctuary Rev. Karen Bridges and Brian Webb will lead the participants through various forms of communion with the opportunity to explore, ask questions and have conversations about the meaning of this sacrament and the role of ritual in our faith traditions. Please contact Rev. Karen if you are planning on attending or sign up at www.rwuc.org/worshipworkshop

MUSIC IN WORSHIP

Now is the time to be thinking about getting involved in the R-W Music program this fall! Opportunities are available as an instrumentalist, (strings, winds, brass, percussion) choral singer, or as a handbell ringer (beginning to advanced). Please speak with Allan Bevan after any service this summer, or email: music@rwuc.org for further information.

GREEN BITES

The City of Edmonton's revised Waste Management program is now one year old. Accompanying it is the Waste Wise app, which can be downloaded to a cell phone or to a computer. Subscribers will find pick-up dates for blue bags and green and black bins, information regarding such things as invasive weeds, and what items can be recycled. In order to reach as many Edmontonians as possible, the app contents can be accessed in several languages. -The Environmental Stewardship Group

PHOTO DIRECTORY

Stop worrying that you have forgotten someone's name, or never knew their name in the first place! It's time to put a name to the face and compile a new photo directory of people who participate at Robertson-Wesley United. Please consider having your photo included (or updated) in the fall edition. It doesn't matter if you have been here for one week or 90 years... please drop by the Club Room starting at 10:00 am or after the Sunday service starting at 11:30 am to get your photo taken on Sundays: Sept 17 or 24. The photo directory is produced right here at R-W – no cost to you, no photos to purchase, you will receive a directory once it has been compiled. Let's learn each other's names together!

Cover Image

Cover image is The Canaanite Woman from Très Riches Heures du Duc de Berry. Thought to be the most important illuminated manuscript of the 15th century. It is a richly decorated Book of Hours containing over 200 folios, half of which are full page illustrations. It was painted sometime between 1412 and 1416 by the Limbourg brothers for their patron Jean, Duc de Berry. They left it unfinished at their (and the Duke's) death in 1416. Charles I, Duke I of Savoy commissioned Jean Colombe to finish the paintings between 1485-1489.
