Embracing Our Spirit

Opening Prayer:

O God, your kindness has brought us to this new day and to this community of your people. We bless you for your call to come and your gracious covenantal presence with us. We bring with us marks and scars of our living and the treasure of our hearts. We bring what the world observes and what you alone know. Bless all that we offer in this time of worship, our songs, our prayers, our words, and the ponderings of our hearts. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.¹

Hymn: I See a New Heaven

Voices United 713

I see a new heaven. I see a new earth
as the old one will pass away,
where the fountain of life flows
and without price goes
to all people who abide in the land.

There, there on the banks of a river bright and free, yielding her fruit, firm in her root,
the Tree of Life will be.

I see a new heaven. I see a new earth
as the old one will pass away,
where the fountain of life flows
and without price goes
to all people who abide in the land.

There, there where death dies and our lives are born again, body and soul, struggling but whole like flowers after the rain.

I see a new heaven. I see a new earth
as the old one will pass away,
where the fountain of life flows
and without price goes
to all people who abide in the land.

There, there where the darkness brings visions from above.
There where the night, bearing new light, reveals the promise of love.

I see a new heaven. I see a new earth
as the old one will pass away,
where the fountain of life flows
and without price goes
to all people who abide in the land.

There, there where we work with the love of healing hands.
Labour we must, true to our trust to build a promised new land.

I see a new heaven. I see a new earth
as the old one will pass away,
where the fountain of life flows
and without price goes
to all people who abide in the land.

Prayer for Transformation:

Gracious and everlasting God, you have always been with us and always will be with us. Sometimes we forget that and think we are in charge and that what happens depends on us and us alone.
Forgive us. Help us in this time of worship to accept your presence and to open ourselves to your Spirit among us, within us, everywhere we go. Amen.²

Coming into God's Presence

Rev. Dirk Jessen

God's Holy Word

Hymn: Put Peace Into Each Other's Hands

More Voices 173

Put peace into each other's hands and like a treasure hold it; protect it like a candle flame, with tenderness enfold it.

Vv. 1-3, 4a, 5

Put peace into each other's hands
with loving expectation; be gentle in your words and ways,
in touch with God's creation.

Put peace into each other's hands,
like bread we break for sharing;
look people warmly in the eye:
our life is meant for caring.

² Written by Catherine Tovell, Kilworth U.C., Komoka, Ont. Gathering, Pentecost 1, 2019, p. 45. Used with permission.

As at communion, shape your hands into a waiting cradle;
the gift of Christ receive, revere, united round the table.

Reach out in friendship, stay with faith in touch with those around you.
Put peace into each other's hands;
the Peace that sought and found you.

Prayer of Illumination

God of Grace, as we receive these words, words inspired by you, may we discover your urgings, may they stir our thoughts, may we be empowered to grow, and may we act in ways that reveal who you are to all who would notice. Amen.³

Scriptures:

Romans 12:9-21 • Let love be genuine; overcome evil with good.

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour. Do not lag in zeal, be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord. Rejoice in hope, be patient in suffering, persevere in prayer. Contribute to the needs of the saints; extend hospitality to strangers. Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil, but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all. If it is possible, so far as it depends on you, live peaceably with all. Beloved, never avenge yourselves, but leave room for the wrath of God; for it is written, "Vengeance is mine, I will repay, says the Lord." No, "If your enemies are hungry, feed them; if they are thirsty, give them something to drink; for by doing this you will heap burning coals on their heads." Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Matthew 16:21-28 • "Take up the cross and follow me."

From that time on, Jesus began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and undergo great suffering at the hands of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and on the third day be raised. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to you." But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things." Then Jesus told his disciples, "if any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it. For what will it profit them if they gain the whole world but forfeit their life? Or what will they give in return for their life? For the Son of God is to come with the angels in the glory of God and then he will repay everyone for what has been done. Truly I tell you, there are some standing here who will not taste death before they see the Son of God coming in the kingdom.”

May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Thanks be to God.

Duet: Panis Angelicus, by Cesar Franck

Douglas Graham and Jacqueline Hernandez, soloists

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum;

Dat panis caelicus figuris terminum:

O res mirabilis!

Manducat Dominum

Pauper, Pauper, servus et humilis.

May the Bread of Angels become bread for mankind;

The Bread of Heaven puts

All foreshadowings to an end;

Oh, thing miraculous!

The body of the Lord will nourish the poor, the servile, and the humble.

Sermon: Making Sense

Rev. Dirk Jessen

Grateful Response

Hymn: Now to Your Table Spread

Voices United 456

Now to your table spread

we come, each one in faith that you alone provide the words of life or death:

in wine and bread, in promised food

we find your loving heart, O God.

Hands of the world stretch out your mystery to touch

in longing to believe a truth beyond our reach, to sing in joy, to cry in grief, to know your meaning for our life.

Here is our common wealth in sharing what is good, as though all humankind around one table stood,

this bread to break, this wine to taste:

one people in the name of Christ.

Pastoral Prayers

Rev. Karen Bridges

Lord's Prayer:

Voices United p. 921

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
thy kin-dom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Sacrament of Holy Communion

All who worship with us today, regardless of age or church membership, are invited and welcome to partake in this sacrament. For people who worship online, please prepare whatever is available in your house, a cracker, bread, muffin, and juice, wine, or water. People in the sanctuary will be offered bread and grape juice. There is a gluten free option available.

⁴ Written by Beth Johnston, Hantsport P.C. Hantsport, N.S., Gathering, Pentecost 1, 2019, p. 49. Used with permission.

The voice of God speaks: “Listen, all you who thirst, come to the waters, and you that have no money, come buy and eat! Come buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money on bread which fails to satisfy? Come to me, that you may have life.”

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Source and Sustainer of life, we gather at this table to offer thanks, and to taste afresh the wonder of a holy love. In companionship with all creatures, we are one in gratitude for the gift and mystery of life, and one in longing for a world reborn.

Creator and Friend, we praise you for your presence in and with your creation, ever drawing it toward healing and wholeness. In our joy, you are the overflowing cup: in our need, you are the bread by which we journey on. With all who abide in your presence and care, we lift our voices to you:

Holy, Holy, Holy:

Holy, holy, holy God, power of life and love!

Heaven and earth are full of your glory!

Hosanna through the ages!

Blest is the One who comes to bring your justice to earth!

Remembering Jesus at Table:

Let us remember together that vision of God’s reign shown to us in Jesus at table:

He shared food with followers and friends, with saints and sinners,

with crowds of thousands on the hillside, and a few friends in an upper room.

On the night before he died, he had supper with his companions.

He took a loaf of bread, and after giving thanks, he broke it, and gave it to them, saying:

“Take, eat. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Then, he took a cup, and after giving thanks, he passed it among them, saying:

“Drink this. Do this in remembrance of me.”

Through this loaf and cup, Jesus lives within us.

In word and deed, Jesus lives among us.

Eternal God, we unite in this covenant of faith, as we break bread and share the cup, giving thanks for your love in Jesus, the Christ. We spread your table with these gifts of the earth and of our labour. We present to you our very lives, committed to your service on behalf of all people.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

We pray to you, God of Love, send your Holy Spirit upon us and what we do here, that we and these gifts, touched by your Spirit may be signs of life and love to each other, and to all the world.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, God most holy, now and forever. Amen.

Sharing the Bread and the Cup

Meditation: Chorale Prelude on "Rockingham", arr. by Frederick Silvestri
Allan Bevan, organ

Prayer after Communion:

Gracious God, may your gifts of love transform and enliven us that we may live lives of thanksgiving. May your presence among us provoke such longing for your realm, that we will never be satisfied until the whole earth knows your justice, your peace, and your love. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.

Hymn: We Are Pilgrims

Voices United 595

We are pilgrims on a journey fellow travellers on the road we are here to help each other walk the mile and bear the load.

Will you, let me be your servant
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

I will hold the Christ-light for you in the night-time of your fear;
I will hold my hand out to you speak the peace you long to hear

I will weep when you are weeping when you laugh, I'll laugh with you;
I will share your joy and sorrow till we've seen this journey through.

When we sing to God in heaven
we shall find such harmony, born of all we've known together of Christ's love and agony.

Will you, let me be your servant
let me be as Christ to you;
pray that I may have the grace to let you be my servant too.

Commissioning:

We go as a blessed and blessing people, pilgrims on a journey.
Let us live God's love through our hands, our hearts, and our voices that we might make a Christlike difference in our world.
Amen.⁵

Life Passages and Blessing of Backpacks

Children & Youth: Children begin in the sanctuary, then go to Kids' Church. Youth meet in the youth room at the beginning of the service.

Genesis 2:4b-25 • Garden of Eden.

Sermon: God is present always!

Right from the beginning of creation God is with us, nurturing, protecting and sustaining life. Sometimes we are so focussed on our own thoughts, and desires that we lose sight of all that we have been offered from God. As we prepare to engage in learning together how can we capture the spirit of innocence that Adam and Eve had before they were cast out of the garden? How will this spirit of innocence help us discover and reconnect with God in our own lives? Let us share our stories of origin and how we came to know God as we receive the blessing and love of God together.

Music: Dr. Allan Bevan, organist; Choir of Robertson-Wesley

Volunteer Opportunities

YOUTH LEADERS

We are putting together a team of leaders to work with the youth of the church (Grade 7-12). Youth Leaders with the support of the ministers gather with the youth on Sunday morning during worship for a discussion time about our faith. Curriculum and discussion topics are provided. The youth also meet twice a month on a Saturday night generally from 7:00 -9:30 pm for a time of fun and activities. We like to have a team of 4 leaders. If you are interested please contact Rev. Karen at Karen.bridges@rwuc.org

LIVESTREAM HELP

We are looking for all ages volunteers (youth to seniors!) to run the livestream on Sundays, from 9:30 - 11:30 am. The livestream process is a simple one that anyone can learn. The position is flexible, and if we get enough volunteers, weeks can be alternated. Having volunteers in this role is crucial to the ongoing success of the livestream. If you are interested please contact Brad at brad.campbell@rwuc.org. Brad will be on vacation from September 3-8, so expect a response once he returns.

GARDEN PATCH & KIDS' CHURCH LEADERS & VOLUNTEERS

We are seeking some dedicated volunteers to work with the youngest in our midst. On most Sundays from Sept – June there is programming for the children in the basement of the church. The programming includes stories, games, activities, crafts, baking, discussion etc. The curriculum is provided. It is most helpful to have 2 people with each group. The Garden Patch is for children who are out of diapers (3 years old to Kindergarten). Kids' Church is Grade 1-6, and if there are enough children it is helpful to split that group into Grade 1-3 and Grade 4-6. We like to have a team of people who lead these groups and we set up a schedule to help spread the work. Please contact Rev. Karen Karen.bridges@rwuc.org if you are interested in leading over the next program year Sept 2023 – June 2024.

NOMINATIONS TEAM

The Board of R-W is working on creating a new team of people (3-5) that will form the Nomination Committee. The nomination committee is responsible for seeking people to fill the elected roles on the R-W Board. Each year there are 1-4 roles that need to be filled. The team also updates the job descriptions when necessary. This is a great way to get to know people in the community of faith and the goal is to help people discover where their gifts from God would best be suited. The work of this team happens primarily from November until the Annual Meeting in March. The Board is seeking people who are willing to talk to others and ask questions. It is helpful if you are a good listener that can match skills with roles. If you are interested in learning more about this role please contact Rev. Karen Bridges: karen.bridges@rwuc.org

R-W News & Notes

WORKSHOP: WHAT IS COMMUNION?

Have you ever wanted to learn more about what Communion is and why we do what we do in the way we do it? On Sunday Sept 24 from 12 - 1:30 pm in the sanctuary Rev. Karen Bridges and Brian Webb will lead the participants through various forms of communion with the opportunity to explore, ask questions and have conversations about the meaning of this sacrament and the role of ritual in our faith traditions. MUSIC IN WORSHIP

Now is the time to be thinking about getting involved in the R-W Music program this fall! Opportunities are available as an instrumentalist, (strings, winds, brass, percussion) choral singer, or as a handbell ringer (beginning to advanced). Please speak with Allan Bevan after any service this summer, or email: music@rwuc.org for further information.

ART SALE DONATIONS NEEDED

We are collecting art for the Art Sale on October 28. Art is in the eye of the beholder - we are collecting paintings, pottery, china, etc. Please deliver to the church or if you need the art to be picked up please call Pat or Sheila at 780-481-0056.

PHOTO DIRECTORY

Stop worrying that you have forgotten someone's name, or never knew their name in the first place! It's time to put a name to the face and compile a new photo directory of people who participate at Robertson-Wesley United. Please consider having your photo included (or updated) in the fall edition. It doesn't matter if you have been here for one week or 90 years... please drop by the Club Room starting at 10:00 am or after the Sunday service starting at 11:30 am to get your photo taken on Sundays: Sept 17 or 24. The photo directory is produced right here at R-W – no cost to you, no photos to purchase, you will receive a directory once it has been compiled. Let's learn each other's names together!

#BLESSED

It is time to reconnect and explore our faith together! On Sunday Sept 10 children and youth are invited to the early part of the worship service as we take time to bless backpacks and other items that are important on our journey in life. We will take time to recommit ourselves to sharing our faith with one another while listening for where God is calling Robertson-Wesley to live out our call and commitment in the world.

SPIRITED ARTS WORKSHOP

Telling Your Stories: An Introduction

Saturday, September 23 from 1:00 - 3:30 pm in Room 11. If you have a story to tell but aren't sure how to approach it, this workshop's for you. If you aren't sure you have any stories worth telling, this workshop's for you. We'll mine life experience for some story gems and do a bit of polishing. While our focus will be on personal stories and oral storytelling, you could absolutely apply the techniques to fiction, to written stories. Lead by well known storyteller Reneé Englot. Please register at rwuc.org/workshops

GREEN BITES

With Autumn around the corner, this is the time when we think about moving our summer clothes to the back of the closet, turning off the air conditioner, and adding an extra blanket to our beds. For years many of us followed “expert” advice and prepared our gardens for winter by cutting back plants and shrubs and sending our leaves to the city's composting facility. Little did we know that by doing so, we were destroying the eggs of many insects, thereby reducing the amount of food available for birds and other creatures. No wonder the bird population is in decline.* In recent years, birds have had to contend with warmer temperatures. They don't sweat like mammals do. Scientists have determined that July 2023 was the hottest month in the past 120,000 years. But wild creatures can't retreat to air-conditioned houses, or find water to drink in a parched landscape. As autumn gives way to winter, we can encourage birds to inhabit our neighbourhoods by providing birdfeeders filled with nourishing seeds, birdbaths with heaters to keep water from freezing, and unpruned trees and plants that provide shelter.

*The decline in the bird population is due to many factors, including destruction of habitat as well as the increased use of glass, without suitable constraints to reduce bird collisions, in building construction. Many thanks to Wild Birds Unlimited for much of the above information. Please see their website at wbu.com for more data!
