Embracing Our Spirit

Introit: Salve Regina, by Miklos Koscar

Belle Canto

Regina, mater misericordiae:

Vita, dulcedo, et spes nostra, salve.

Ad te clamamus, exsules, filii Hevae.

Ad te suspiramus, gementes et flentes in hac lacrimarum valle.

*Eia ergo, Advocata nostra, illos tuos misericordes oculos
ad nos converte.*

Et Iesum, benedictum fructum ventris tui, nobis, post hoc exilium ostende.

O clemens: O pia: O dulcis

Virgo Maria.

Queen, mother of mercy:

our life, sweetness, and hope, hail.

To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve.

To you we sigh, mourning and weeping
in this valley of tears.

Turn then, our advocate,
those merciful eyes
toward us.

And Jesus, the blessed fruit of thy womb,
after our exile, show us.

O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

Opening Prayer:

In the pews or at home, remind us, O God,
that worship is more than showing up.

Inspire us, O Comforter, that our hearts may recognize your presence in worship and the world.

Through prayers and readings, hymns and communion, remind us, O God, that worship is more than sharing words.

Awaken us, O Teacher, that our hearts may receive your message for us.

In this time of worship, remind us, O God, that worship is not just something to be observed.

Engage us, O Saviour, that our hearts and lives may proclaim and enact our relationship with you. Amen.¹

Hymn: Tell Me the Stories of Jesus

Voices United 357

Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear, things I would ask him to tell me if he were here:
scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea,
stories of Jesus, tell them to me.

First let me hear how the children stood round his knee, and I shall fancy his blessing resting on me;
words full of kindness, deeds full of grace,
all in the love-light of Jesus' face.

Tell me, in accents of wonder, how rolled the sea,
tossing the boat in a tempest on Galilee!
And how the Master, ready and kind,
chided the billows, and hushed the wind.

Into the city I'd follow the children's band, waving a branch of the palm-tree high in my hand;

one of his heralds, yes, I would sing loudest hosannas! Jesus is King!

Show me that scene in the garden of bitter pain;
and of the cross where my Saviour for me was slain.
Sad ones or bright ones, so that they be
stories of Jesus, tell them to me.

Prayer of Transformation:

It is intimidating, O God, to open our hearts completely to you.

We feel vulnerable, with no defenses, with no explanations.

Yet, in trust, in faith, we open ourselves to you, praying for the joyful courage to turn back to your way of loving.²

(a time of silent prayer)

We are a forgiven people.

We are told that our light has come.

We are challenged and enabled to be light in this world, for we are graced by the Light of Life.

Thanks be to God! Amen.³

Coming into God's Presence

Rev. Dirk Jessen

God's Holy Word

Prayer of Illumination:

May we listen with all our hearts, Holy God, to the teachings of and about your child, Jesus, and the guidance of your Spirit. May we be prepared to turn away from those things that keep us from your way and turn instead to those things that bring your kin-dom closer, looking not for personal advantage or recognition, but rather to be aware of your presence in all around us. Amen.⁴

Scripture:

Renée Englot

Mark 5:1-20 • Jesus heals a possessed Gentile.

They came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the Gerasenes. And when Jesus had stepped out of the boat, immediately a man out of the tombs with an unclean spirit met him. He lived among the tombs; and no one could restrain him any more, even with a chain; for he had often been restrained with shackles and chains, but the chains he wrenched apart, and the shackles he broke in pieces; and no one had the strength to subdue him. Night and day among the tombs and on the mountains he was always howling and bruising himself with stones. When he saw Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down before him; and he shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, do not torment me." For he had said to him, "Come out of the man you unclean spirit!" Then Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He replied, "My name is Legion; for we are many." He begged him earnestly not to send them out of the country. Now there on the hillside a great herd of swine was feeding; and the unclean spirits begged him, "Send us into the swine; let us enter them.” So he gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered the swine; and the herd, numbering about two thousand, rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and were drowned in the sea. The swineherds ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came to see what it was that had happened. They came to Jesus and saw the demoniac sitting there, clothed and in his right mind, the very man who had had the legion; and they were afraid. Those who had seen what had happened to the demoniac and to the swine reported it. Then they began to beg Jesus to leave their neighbourhood. As he was getting into the boat, the man who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. But Jesus refused, and said to him, “Go home to your friends, and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you.” And he went away and began to proclaim in the Decapolis how much Jesus had done for him; and everyone was amazed.

Thanks be to God.

Sermon: Staying to Heal

Rev. Dirk Jessen

Hymn: We Are One

Voices United 402

We are one, as we come, as we come, joyful to be here;
in the praise on our lips there's a sense that God is near.
We are one as we sing, as we seek we are found,
and we come needful of God's grace
as we meet, together in this place.

We are one as we share, as we share brokenness and fear;
in the touch of a hand, there's a sense that God is here.
We are one as we care, as we heal, we are healed;
and we share warmth in God's embrace as we pray together in this place.

We are one as we feast, as we feast, peace becomes the sign;
in the bread and the wine there's a sense of love divine.
We are one as we come, as we feed, we are fed;
and we feel God's refreshing grace
as we meet at table in this place.

We are one as we hear, as we hear, heart and hand unite;
in the word we receive there's a sense that God is light.
We are one as we leave, as we love, we are loved;
and we seek justice in God's ways
as we move together from this place.

Pastoral Prayers

Rev. Karen Bridges

Lord's Prayer:

Voices United p. 921

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
thy kin-dom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;

and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

Sacrament of Holy Communion

All who worship with us today, regardless of age or church membership, are invited and welcome to partake in this sacrament. For people who worship online, please prepare whatever is available in your house, a cracker, bread, muffin, and juice, wine, or water. People in the sanctuary will be offered bread and grape juice. Gluten free bread is available.

We are invited to this table where our living finds wholeness.

We bring our woundedness to be healed, and we bring our hope for abundant life in Christ.

We are invited to this table where the humble foods of life are offered.

Bread and cup to nourish, love and acceptance to nurture.

We are all one in the body of Christ, joining today with the body of Christ worldwide.

Thanks be to God.⁶

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to God.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

⁶ Written by Wanda Burse, Gathering, Pentecost 2, 2019, p. 45. Used with permission.

Eternal God, Maker of heaven and earth, we join with all people to give you thanks and praise. You formed the universe in your wisdom and created all things by your grace. We praise you for all your good gifts: the witness of saints and prophets; the work of faithful people; this earth in all its blessing and promise; and this bread, once scattered, now brought together and made one. In the hope that your people may be brought together from the ends of the earth into your reign of justice and compassion, we gather with those of every time and every place to give you praise and glory.⁷

Holy, Holy, Holy:

Holy, holy, holy are you, God of power and might;
heaven and earth are filled with your glory.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the one who comes in your name.

Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest!

Remembering Jesus at Table:

Blessed is our mentor, Jesus, who, before his final suffering, earnestly desired to eat with his companions the Passover of liberation; who, on the night that he was betrayed, took bread, gave thanks, broke it, and said: “This is my body, which is for you. Do this to remember me.”

In the same way, after supper, he passed the cup, saying:

“This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this whenever you drink it, to remember me.”

O God, Redeemer of all things, with grateful thanks we offer this bread and wine, fruits of your earth and of our labour, signs of your redemptive purpose for our lives and for all your creation.⁸

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Memorial Acclamation:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Holy God, pour your Spirit on us, and upon these communion elements, that we may know Christ in the breaking of bread, and that in word and deed, we may be channels of your love, peace, and justice in the world.⁹

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, God most holy, now and forever.

Great Amen:

Amen.

Meditation: Variations on “Dove of Peace”, arr. by John Carter Dr. Allan Bevan, piano

Prayer after Communion:

Life-giving God, we have taken our place at your table. We have participated in this remembrance with Christians the world over today. We accept that we are now called to live Christ-like lives, serving others, protecting the earth, and making right our relationships with each other. For this Christ came, for this Christ

Hymn: God of the Bible

More Voices 28

God of the Bible, God in the Gospel, hope seen in Jesus, hope yet to come,
you are our centre, daylight or darkness,
freedom or prison, you are our home.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

God in our struggles, God in our hunger, suffering with us, taking our part,
still you empow'r us, mothering Spirit,
feeding, sustaining, from your own heart.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Those without status, those who are nothing,
you have made royal, gifted with rights,
chosen as partners, midwives of justice,
birthing new systems, lighting new lights.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Hope we must carry, shining and certain through all our turmoil, terror and loss, bonding us gladly one to the other,
till our world changes facing the Cross.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Fresh as the morning, sure as the sunrise,
God always faithful, you do not change.

Commissioning:

The journey may be filled with detours and yield signs.

The journey is often into the unknown and across uncharted waters.

May we each know God's presence and blessings in all parts of the journey of life.

Thanks be to God who never leaves us! Amen.¹¹

Epiphany 4

110th Anniversary Sunday

Children & Youth: Children begin in the sanctuary, then go to Kids' Church. Youth meet in the youth room at the beginning of the service.

Scripture: Mark 5:21-43 • Jesus heals those who seek relief.

Sermon: What if we actually got what we wanted?

The story of the faith of the woman who reaches out to touch the hem of Jesus' cloak is one of deep abiding faith. It is a story of living one's faith boldly, and taking a risk. As we celebrate the 110th Anniversary of the Robertson-Wesley building how will we reach out in faith? What is it that we most want as a community of faith? How will the wounds of the past be healed, leading to a new vision of what we value and how we will commit to living out our faith in the world?

Music: Dr. Allan Bevan, organist, Choir of Robertson-Wesley, Robertson-Wesley Ringers, Nova Bells

R-W News & Notes

110TH ANNIVERSARY

On Sunday January 28 at 10:30 am we will begin our year of celebrations in honour of the 110th Anniversary of the church building. This building has served as a place of safety, warmth, welcome, worship, service, and beauty for 110 years now. This is the time for the Robertson-Wesley Community of Faith to discern together who we are today, and what legacy we want to leave for the generations to come. Come and start the year off by honouring and celebrating this beautiful sacred structure. Invite your friends, invite past parishioners who have moved away to join us online as well. Watch for more events throughout the year.

BETWEEN THE AISLES

The deadline for the next issue of Between the Aisles is Sunday, January 28. This year Robertson-Wesley (originally Robertson Presbyterian Church) is celebrating its 110th birthday! Do you have photos taken at Robertson-Wesley? How about a special memory of R-W, perhaps your first visit to this church, an outstanding service? Why not write about it and submit it to the church at news@rwuc.org, attn Between the Aisles, by January 28. EVERY BRILLIANT THING

Saturday, February 3 at 2:00 pm at R-W. Tickets are $10 and include tea and coffee, with apple pie and ice cream. Every Brilliant Thing was an off-Broadway hit – a one-actor play with an element of audience involvement. Starting as a child, when his mother who battles chronic depression attempts suicide, the narrator builds a list of the brilliant things that make life worth living. Although it deals with heavy material, the play is touching, funny and life affirming. Come on this inspiring journey with actor Trevor McTavish, directed by Rayna Pohorelic.

Worship Notes

In the season of Epiphany we honour the power of light. This is the season we learn what it means to be a disciple. The word disciple means “learner.” This is a time to learn more about our faith, to ask questions and deepen our understanding of who God is and where the Holy Spirit is at work in our lives and in the world. This is a time to grow in our faith and learn how to live our faith in the world. What is your biggest faith question this Epiphany Season?
