Embracing Our Spirit

Call to Worship:

We are gathered here on this first Sunday in Lent.

It is a season of mystery.

It marks the time of Jesus' journey in the wilderness.

Can we go with Jesus on this journey?

Yes. Jesus invites us on this journey to discover more about ourselves, to discover more about his way, and to discover the kin-dom of Heaven.

Come, let us go with Jesus on this journey.¹

Hymn: Throughout These Lenten Days and Nights

Voices United 108

Throughout these Lenten days and nights we turn to walk the inward way, where, meeting Christ, our guide and light,
we live in hope 'till Easter Day.

v. 1-5

The pilgrim Christ, the Lamb of God, who found in weakness greater power, embraces us, though lost and flawed,
and leads us to his Rising Hour.

We bear the silence, cross and pain of human burdens, human strife, while sisters, brothers help sustain our courage 'till the Feast of Life.

And though the road is hard and steep, the Spirit ever calls us on through Calvary's dying, dark and deep, until we see the coming Dawn.

So let us choose the path of One who wore, for us, the crown of thorn, and slept in death that we might wake to life on Resurrection Morn!

Coming into God's Presence

As we embark on this Lenten journey, O God, open our hearts and minds to your words. We ask that these words give us guidance in our living of your call to us to make a difference in the world. Amen.³

Scripture:

Pat Austin

Mark 10:17-31 • Rich man called to sell everything.

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up and knelt before him, and asked Jesus, "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: 'You shall not murder; You shall not steal; You shall not bear false witness; You shall not defraud; Honour your parents.'" He said to Jesus, "Teacher, I have kept all these since my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said, "You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me." When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kin-dom of God!" And the disciples were perplexed at these words. But Jesus said to them again, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kin-dom of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kin-dom of God." They were greatly astounded and said to one another, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For mortals it is impossible, but not for God; for God all things are possible." Peter began to say to him, "Look, we have left everything and followed you." Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or siblings or parents or children or fields, for my sake and for the sake of the good news, who will not receive a hundredfold now in this age - houses, siblings, parents and children, and fields with persecutions - and in the age to come eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last will be first."

May we hear what the Spirit is saying to the church.

Thanks be to God.

I saw the rich ones I saw what they gave the widow who offered two pennies she'd saved and I saw she was smiling I knew she was glad and I wondered because she gave all that she had

But with God the world is turned upside down
the poor are embraced and the lost they are found.
Let's work for a world where all people are free
where it's good to feel good about God loving you and me.

I saw Zacheus, a sinner they said but to his house
I saw Jesus go to break bread and I knew something special had happened that day when Zacheus gave half of his riches away

But with God the world is turned upside down
the poor are embraced and the lost they are found.
Let's work for a world where all people are free
where it's good to feel good about God loving you and me.

The men in the vineyards were grumbling one day
I knew they weren't happy with what they'd been paid for the ones who came later were paid just the same as the workers who greeted the dawn when they came

But with God the world is turned upside down
the poor are embraced and the lost they are found.
Let's work for a world where all people are free
where it's good to feel good about God loving you and me.

Grateful Response

Pastoral Prayers

Lord's Prayer:

Our Creator, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
thy kin-dom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those that trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kin-dom and the power and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

Sacrament of Holy Communion

All who worship with us today, regardless of age or church membership, are invited and welcome to partake in this sacrament. For people who worship online, please prepare whatever is available in your house, a cracker, bread, and juice, wine, or water. People in the sanctuary will be offered bread and grape juice. There is a gluten free option available.

The celebration of communion is always a festival of friends, a pulling together of our lives and our hopes, our moments of agony and our glimpses of success. It is here, where bread is broken and wine is shared, that we can most fully be ourselves and see others for who they truly are: children of the living God.

Here the common things of life - bread and wine, memories and dreams - become holy, touched by God.

Here that which is earthly becomes divine, and that which is human becomes more than it has ever dreamed.⁵

The Holy One is here.

God's Spirit is with us.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to God

We offer joyful thanks to God.

Blessed are you, gracious God, Creator of light, Giver of all life, Source of love. From the dust of the earth, you created us in your image. From the bondage and slavery, you deliver us. Through all our wilderness wanderings you guide us. You call us to renewal and repentance, to justice and compassion, to healing and wholeness. We thank you for sending us Jesus, your Chosen One, bread for our journey. Jesus lived and loved this human life, taking upon himself our suffering and sorrow, being tested as we are tested, and reaching out to broken victims and the world's brokenness. In Jesus we come to know your truth, to feel the life that is Christ within us. So it is that throughout these Lenten days and nights we worship you, and bless your name:⁶

Holy, Holy, Holy: Voices United p.941 Setting D
Holy, holy, holy, God of power and might; heaven and earth are full with your glory.
Hosanna in the highest!
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.
Hosanna in the highest.

Remembering Jesus at Table:

We do what Jesus did the night before he died. He took bread, gave thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends and said, "Take, eat; remember me." Then he took the cup, and said, "Take, drink; remember."

O God, Redeemer of all things, with grateful thanks we offer this bread and wine, fruits of your earth and of our labour, signs of your redemptive purpose for our lives and for all your creation.⁷

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Memorial Acclamation: Voices United p.942 Setting D
Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Holy God, pour your Spirit on us, and upon these communion elements, that we may know Christ in the breaking of bread, and that in word and deed, we may be channels of your love, peace, and justice in the world.⁸

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, God most holy, now and forever.

Great Amen: Voices United p.941 Setting D
Amen. Amen. Amen.

Sharing the Bread and the Cup (Instructions)

Meditation: Bread of Heaven, by C. H. Trevor

Dr. Allan Bevan, organ

Prayer after Communion:

Eternal and gracious One, though we live in a world of need,

here we have tasted your goodness and hungered for a world more just.

Though afflicted by brokenness and division, here we have heard your call to be a people of healing community.

Though daily we touch our limits,

here we have received the fullness of your grace.

Send us forth, O God,

In faith, in hope, and in love. Amen.⁹

O God, how we have wandered and hidden from your face;
in foolishness have squandered your legacy of grace.
But how, in exile dwelling, we turn with fear and shame, as distant but compelling, you call us each by name.

And now at length discerning the evil that we do,
by faith we are returning with hope and trust in you.
In haste you come to meet us, and home rejoicing bring, in gladness there to greet us with calf and robe and ring.

O God of all the living, both banished and restored, compassionate, forgiving, our peace and hope assured.
Grant now that our transgressing, our faithlessness may cease.
Stretch out your hand in blessing, in pardon, and in peace.

Commissioning:

Go from here to overturn the care-less attitudes.

We go from here to practise compassion.

Go from here to challenge selfish and racist systems.

We go from here to encourage sharing, equality, and justice.

Go from here to share hope in the service of others.

We go from here to create faith community beyond this time of worship.

May God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer, bless us as we go. Amen.¹⁰

Questions for Reflection:

How will the spirit of abundance fuel the cycles of blessings?

How will the relinquishing of one's privilege enhance and enliven our lives and sense of purpose and meaning?

Sermon: Beyond Suffering and Getting it Wrong

The Gospel of Mark, in telling the story of Jesus, is fast-paced and urgent befitting the importance of its message. However, between the end of chapter 8 and the end of chapter 9, no less than three times Jesus raises the same central theme. In part, we are to take from this that following in the way of Jesus will be the cause of opposition, to put it mildly. In part we are reminded that even the core of followers that Jesus had chosen and who walked with him day in and day out lapsed into wrong thinking. But even more importantly, beyond suffering and being in many ways mistaken, we hear again how we go on to live is what truly matters. How do we try to avoid opposition to our faith in Jesus? In what ways do we try to get Jesus to meet our own personal, selfish needs? Whom do we choose to serve in and through our lives and why?

Volunteer Opportunities

LEADERSHIP SEARCH

We are seeking to fill several positions on the R-W Board as people have finished their two-year terms. It is up to the Community of Faith to help discern who amongst us is being called by God to lead R-W in the next few years. In Memorial Hall (and on the website at rwuc.org/leadership-search) there are job descriptions posted, along with a booklet that explains the process for filling these roles. We encourage everyone to prayerfully consider if you are called or if you know of someone who would be great in these positions. We are seeking: Incoming Chair of the Board, Treasurer, Chair of Ministry and Personnel and Northern Spirit Regional Representative. If you are interested, we ask that you fill out an expression of interest found in the Yellow booklet near the poster. If you have any questions feel free to talk to the people who are presently in the role or the staff of R-W.

HYDRANGEA COORDINATOR

Looking for a volunteer to help coordinate the ordering, handing out and delivering of the Easter Hydrangeas. Easter Sunday will be March 31, with orders taken on March 10, 17 and 24. The coordinating role includes organising the volunteers ensuring all hydrangeas are collected on March 31. Elyse in the office would help to teach you the duties of the coordinating role. Please contact Elyse at mail@rwuc.org if you are interested.

Blue envelopes are provided for this purpose in the bulletin.

SPIRITED ARTS WORKSHOP: Finding Light in the Shadows

February 24, 1 - 4 pm. In her book "The Dark Side of the Light Chasers", Debbie Ford says that the path to wholeness and healing is through loving embrace of both our light and shadow selves. By creating self-portraits with dry media, we will explore how all form is modelled with light and shadow and reflect on how we may use this as a metaphor for self-awareness, acceptance and healing. Portraits can be realistic or abstracted/expressive! No previous experience required, just an openness to try something new. All supplies included. Please register on rwuc.org/workshops

SPIRITED ARTS WRITING WORKSHOP: Charting the Wilderness

Throughout the season of Lent, Rachel Frey will be leading a writing journey, inviting you to explore your life's stories - through creative activities, spiritual practices, writing prompts, and guided reflection. Each week, Rachel will send an email with an activity to help you to recall stories from your life and writing prompts to assist in moving those stories from your memory to paper. The writing journey will conclude after Easter with an in-person writing workshop. If you'd like to participate in this writing journey, receiving the weekly emails from Rachel, please sign up at <https://rachelfreysd.wordpress.com/charting-the-wilderness>.

MEMBERSHIP CLASS

For 5 weeks from Wednesdays 7:00 - 8:30 pm (Feb 21, 28, & March 6, and Thursdays March 14 & 21) in the Club Room. This is an opportunity to talk about your faith, to learn about God, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. It is also an opportunity to learn about the history, polity and faith practice of The United Church of Canada, and how we live out our faith in the world. After the class you will be asked to discern for yourselves whether or not you wish to publicly proclaim your commitment in this dynamic faith organisation. If you wish to participate in the group please contact Rev. Karen at karen.bridges@rwuc.org to register.

SEARCH COMMITTEE UPDATE

As announced by the RWUC Board in November, our four-member Search Committee was established in late fall. We are tasked with searching for, interviewing and selecting personnel for the positions approved as part of the R-W Community of Faith profile in 2023. The Minister of Faith Development & Intergenerational Ministry and the Minister of Social Justice and Outreach are both half-time positions. In The United Church of Canada, ministry personnel searches are done through ChurchHub, a specialized, secure website which the Search Committee had to learn before beginning to use it. We have identified some candidates; if you are aware of anyone who might be interested in a half-time Ministry position as an ordered ministry, lay ministry or student in ministry (eligible in the UCC), please encourage them to update their profile on ChurchHub or reach out to the Search Committee at searchteam@rwuc.org. -From the Search Committee: Andrew Hopkyns, Lorne Langman, Nova Laurin & Rowan Fox

In the Community

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER SERVICE

Friday, March 1 at 1:30pm, Spirit Of Hope United Church (7909 – 82 Ave Edmonton) The plight of the people of the middle east is in the news and on people's minds. Everyone is welcome to enjoy this special service of story, song and prayer which has been created by the Women's Inter-Church Council of Canada and was written by Women of Palestine. There will be a chance for visiting and refreshments afterwards.

Worship Notes

As we continue the season of Lent which lasts for 40 days and nights we follow Jesus into the wilderness and into a time of reflection and turning toward God. For this season, we will engage in more silence and reflection, thus we will not be singing after the offering. We will sing the Lord's prayer to hear these words anew. We will refrain from saying Hallelujah, until Palm Sunday. This is a time to explore new ways of prayer and contemplation while renewing our commitment to God and to living out our faith in the world.
